

Sharon Lewis, P.C.C., CPCC, B.A.
Executive Coach

Sharon is an executive coach with Path To Trust. Sharon has a PCC credential from the International Coaches Federation (ICF) and a CPCC from The Coaches Training Institute. Sharon is also credentialed through The Center for Right Relationship, APP Associates International, Team Coaching International and The Leadership Circle. She served as a partner coach on the corporate coaching initiative that won the 2011, ICF Prism award which honours, celebrates, and shares learning from organizations who have embraced coaching as an integral part of their leadership strategy.

Sharon has engaged leaders in growth conversations since 2003. She provides leadership and team development to an international clientele of executives, managers, and teams to facilitate the creation of sustainable, high-performance teams world-wide. Her 15 years of experience in developing Emotional Intelligence helps leaders become at once positive, proactive and productive. Her integral perspective makes her invaluable in system transformation work. Leaders who work with her learn to simultaneously deploy relationship skills, authentic leadership presence and a focus on results. Sharon draws on a diverse career background effectively coaching leaders in fields as wide ranging as Construction Management, Information Technology, Finance, Healthcare and Education. She has worked successfully in government, Not for Profit and For Profit Sectors and in a wide variety of organizational cultures. She embodies an unshakable belief that sustainable high performance is grounded on three pillars: a compelling, unifying vision, a caring, supportive and challenging environment in which to work and the quest to align what you do with who you are becoming.

Sharon provides unique perspectives and a powerful blend of hard and soft skills to her clients. She balances theory, introspection and real world practicality to help her clients create outstanding results. In her leisure time, Sharon is an avid skier, has led local Habitat for Humanity's Women Build Projects and recently launched "100 Women Who Care Guelph" raising over $100,000 and counting for local charities in her home town.