

Catherine McKernan
Director, Client Solutions

Catherine was the Founder of Path To Trust where she developed the vision for the programs that Path To Trust offers today.

Ultimately, Catherine's passion is in helping organizations build stronger, healthy, safer cultures was her goal and as she steps aside due to her terminal illness, she feels strongly that Kirk Fox and Francine Piché will keep her vision open and moving forward.

I wish all my clients health, happiness and live each day to the fullest.

Always and forever, Catherine
